18th JUDICIAL 2017 PARENT AWARENESS EVENT

WHEN: October 4, 2017, 5:30-9:00 p.m.

An evening that will focus on empowering parents to keep their children safe from exploitation, what is happening out there and what parents can do about it.

Featuring...

A presentation by iEMPATHIZE

How can we empower our kids to stay safe from exploitation, whether through bullying, isolation, abuse, or even something like trafficking? How can we go a step further by nurturing their empathy, so they will empower others to stay safe as well? This workshop will introduce these concepts and equip you with new strategies to empower your kids.

Breakout session topics include...

What is normal sexuality for children?

Tech Savvy Parents– Keep your kids use of technology safe

Healthy Sexuality—What's normal? What's concerning? What are red flags?

Parenting in 2017—Media & Video Game Awareness

High Risk Victim Tool—Red Flags of Sexual Exploitation

Who are the victims of sexual exploitation?

5:30—5:45 Welcome—18th Judicial, District Attorney George Brauchler

5:50—6:50 Empathy and Empowerment: Giving Our Kids the Tools to End Exploitation—IEmpathize

7:00– 9:00 BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Refreshments provided

WHERE: Aurora Public Schools
Professional Learning & Conference Center
15701 East 1st Avenue

Questions? Contact Kimberly Howard, 18th Judicial District Probation Supervisor 720-213-7836